

Wild About Books

Ages: Early Childhood - 6th Grade

There's no secret about reading being a crucial part of a child's education and future. All studies point to the fact that it is important to get kids reading early and help them to develop a continued love for reading.

At Fun Time Entertainment, we have a show that encourages reading and is a lot of fun to watch. One of our most seasoned performers, Safari Cinde, will come to your home or school with puppets, magic and even a live bunny! This 45-minute show, "Wild About Books" is great for families and children up to about 6th grade.

Do you have questions about this whimsical and educational show? We would love to talk with you about it! You can call us at 214-886-4243. We look forward to speaking with you!
